

Agreement on Academic Exchange
Between
Graduate School of Applied Informatics, University of Hyogo, Japan
And
Sirindhorn International Institute of Technology, Thammasat University,
Thailand

Sirindhorn International Institute of Technology, Thammasat University, and Graduate School of Applied Informatics, University of Hyogo, hereby affirm their intent to extend the academic collaborations and exchanges, as will be of mutual benefit to both institutions.

The agreement will cover, but is not limited to:

- Exchange of faculty/staff members of the institutions;
- Exchange of students – maximum of five students each ways annually;
- Exchange of information, documentation and materials where appropriate;
- Co-ordination in joint projects;
- Consultancy on agreements between the two institutions.

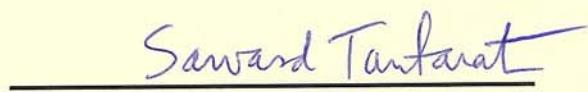

Each institution or its members under exchange programs shall bear their own costs of travel and lodging. Details of the implementation of any particular exchange resulting from this agreement shall be communicated and discussed between the two educational institutions.

This agreement to promote academic exchange shall become effective upon completion of signatures by both parties, and it shall be in effect for five years, subject to revision and modification by mutual consent. Renewal of this agreement shall be discussed by both parties prior to the expiration date. Either party may request an early termination of this agreement by written notification to the other party by at least six months in advance.

Prof. Isao Shirakawa,
Dean

Graduate School of Applied Informatics Sirindhorn International Institute of Technology
University of Hyogo

Prof. Sawasd Tantaratana,
Director

Sirindhorn International Institute of Technology
Thammasat University

Date October 16, 2008

Date October 16, 2008