講義目的及び到達目標	The purpose of this course is to give students opportunities to continue using and improving their English abilities. The teacher will speak in English and all materials from the teacher will be in English. Of course, students will be expected to speak, read, and write in English, too.
講義内容・授業計画	At the moment, there is no set subject matter for this course, and the materials have not been chosen. Most likely, you will read some short stories, listen to some short lectures, make a few short presentations, watch a movie or two, and do a lot of talking. The main activities in class will be speaking in pairs and small groups. Asking the teacher and each other questions will be expected. I hope to find out from you and your classmates what topics you are interested in finding out about and talking about.
テキスト	Probably none, and we will use handouts, etc.
